

Mike Davis*Executive Director, Behavioral Health Center of Nueces County

Mike received a Bachelor's Degree in Science from Howard Payne University and a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from Tarleton State University. He began his career with the Texas Youth Commission as an entry level Youth Activity Supervisor and through dedication and hard work, continued to move into various position up to an Assistant Superintendent, Superintendent and Regional Director over six Texas Youth Commission facilities and four half-way houses. In 2012 he became the Director of Mexia State Supported Living Center (SSLC) the states only forensic SSLC where he served until his retirement from the state of Texas in April 2016. Mike became the Chief Executive Officer of the Behavioral Health Center of Nueces County (formerly MHMR) in January 01, 2017. He is responsible for managing the delivery of services to nearly 11,000 individuals per year, managing a $24 million annual budget, oversees human resources for 330 employees and contractors, ensures compliance with regulations and standards, and represents the center in community activities and events.